This morning we welcome Rev. Kym McNair as our guest preacher. She is the Director of Social Transformation at My Sisters' Place, a domestic violence agency in Westchester County. Rev. McNair has worked with CONNECT Faith in their Safe Church Ending Child Sexual Abuse project, and the Children of Combahee, which mobilized against child sexual abuse in Black churches. She is also an anti-racist trainer and organizer with The People's Institute for Survival and Beyond, a multi-generational, multi-ethnic collective based in New Orleans. Kym is the descendant of formerly enslaved Africans, Jamaican immigrants, community organizers, preachers and teachers, and works to address oppressions that are impacting her entire community, but especially the compounding oppressions impacting the lives of Black women. She was ordained by the Central Hudson Baptist Association in 2014 and received recognition from the American Baptist Churches of New York State in 2021.
